

Contents

	Introduction	1
1	Adoption: your questions answered	5
	The children	6
	Is adoption right for you?	9
	How does the adoption process work?	11
	Who can adopt?	16
	What is concurrent planning?	20
	What is Fostering for Adoption (FfA)?	20
	A detailed look at the process for adopters	20
	Intercountry adoptions	50
2	Legal and financial matters	55
	Introduction	56
	Summary of the legal entitlements and legal requirements of people involved in the adoption process	62
	The role of the courts in the adoption process	67
	Money matters	74
3	Schooling and education	79
	Introduction	80
	What are we entitled to know about our child's educational history?	81
	How do I choose a good school for my child?	85
	What are "special educational needs and disabilities"?	85
	Education, Health and Care Plans	86
	Understanding your child's entitlements to special education provision	87
4	Your child: physical and emotional needs	93
	Introduction	94
	Possible effects of neglect and/or abuse on children	94
	Obtaining health services for your child	101
5	For adoptive parents	113
	Introduction	114
	Adoptive parents' needs are important too	114
	Feelings adoptive parents commonly encounter throughout the adoption experience	115
	Attending to the importance of your couple relationship	123
	Adoption support	124
	Helping yourself and helping your child	127
	Appendices	129
	Appendix 1: Books, journals and magazines	130
	Appendix 2: Organisations, government agencies, websites	137
	Appendix 3: National Minimum Standards	146
	Appendix 4: The Adoption Passport	149
	Index	151