Contents

1 Introduction 1

A charter for brothers and sisters 6

Core values and principles 7

How to make best use of this guide 8

2 Children's sibling relationships: what helps or hinders them? 10

Introduction 10

Children's relationships with brothers and sisters 10

The impact of early family life, parenting, emotional warmth and differential treatment 13

Adverse childhood experiences and sibling relationships 15

The impact of domestic violence, fear and uncertainty 16

Bullying and peer and sibling relationships 18

Caregiving behaviours 19

Disability 20

Links between friendships and sibling relationships 20

Research – improving sibling relationships 21

Key points 22

3 Becoming looked after: early planning, placement and contact for brothers and sisters 24

Introduction 24

Children and young people – what matters to them 24

Research – placement together in foster care 26

Early planning and placing children 28

Foster families 30

Intervening to help promote better peer and sibling relationships – what might help? 35

Foster carers and separated siblings – placement and contact issues 36

Key practice points 38

Work with the children – photos, explanations and visits 39

Key practice points 40

The quality of contact/family time – observations and links to assessment 40
Key practice points 41
Key messages 42

4 Frameworks for the assessment of sibling relationships and placements 44
Introduction 44
Various frameworks, models and approaches 44
Discussion – frameworks 51
Key practice points 51

5 Assessment: what you should include and why 53
Introduction 53
Assessment: key elements and rationale 55
Structuring and managing the process – what a coherent assessment might include 57
Understanding needs and behaviours – incorporating SDQs into your assessment 66
Discussion and practice points 68
Analysis 69
Circumstances that may indicate that siblings should be placed separately 70
Identifying who should be placed with whom and considering permanence options 72
Making decisions 73
Recording – the importance of clear written explanations for children and their families 75
Key practice points 76

6 Involving children, providing explanations and doing life story work 77
Introduction 77
Explanations and life story work 85
Key practice points 87

7 Recruiting and preparing new families 88
Introduction 88
Recruiting permanent new families 88
Preparing, assessing and approving families 91
Key aspects to explore and address in adoption assessments 94
The impact on existing children 96

Support within the adopters' network and beyond 96
Training, preparation and the adoption panel 96
Key practice points 97

8 Preparing to move, matching and introductions 99
Introduction 99
Sharing information 99
Introductions – paying attention to children's and adults' emotional needs 101
Adopters and foster carers – their relationship and needs 104
Planning moves 109
Moving in all together or not? 112
Children in separate placements and where continued placement apart is planned 113
Children currently placed together who are to go to separate permanent families 114
Key practice points 115

9 Brothers and sisters: visits and keeping in touch 116
Planning and supporting contact 117
Planning contact – pointers from research 119
Key points 122
Contact between adopted children and siblings in long-term foster care/with family members 122
Is there too much focus on risk and not enough on benefits? 123
Specialist organisations helping siblings to meet up 124
Key practice points 125

10 Research: how children and their families fare 127
Introduction 127
Overview – children's family backgrounds, their pre-placement experiences and needs 127
Introductions and the early days 128
The "care-giver" child 129
Children's sibling and peer relationships 130
Aggression, emotional regulation and sibling conflicts 131
Summary of key research findings 132

11 Planning the right support for children and families 133
Introduction 133
Helping birth children and placed children to get along 134

Research on post-placement support 135
Adoption Support Fund 136
Planning support 136
Summary 142
Key practice points 143

Conclusions 144

References 148

Appendices 157

Appendix 1: Overview of legislation, guidance and NICE/SCIE guidance 158
Appendix 2: Forms and sample letters 167
Appendix 3: Useful reading and online resources 189
Appendix 4: Adopters' accounts 193

FORMS AVAILABLE FOR PURCHASE

The forms and sample letters in Appendix 2 are available here for agencies to copy, amend and use as they wish. All of these forms and sample letters are also available as Word templates for purchase; the set of forms costs £25.00 plus VAT = £30.00. These can be purchased, for unlimited future use, at: www.corambaaf.org.uk/bookshop, or by contacting CoramBAAF Publications Sales at pubs.sales@corambaaf.org.uk or on 020 7520 7517.