

Associate members in Northern Ireland

CoramBAAF membership gives all staff ongoing access to trusted advice, practice tools and a national professional network. We are here to support child-centred decision-making, strengthen workforce capability and help services respond confidently to changes in social work practice.

What you can access with your membership

Expert advice when you need it

Advice line and Outbound Permanence Service

- Access timely, practical and legally-compliant advice for all your practice queries
- Receive assurance and direction from specialists in adoption, fostering, kinship, legal and health
- Feel confident using a service trusted by more than 4,000 professionals

Learning and development

Training, events and conferences

- Join the 8,000 professionals improving their practice with regular, free and accessible webinars.
- Learn and progress with sector-leading training chosen by 3,000 professionals each year, and save with your member discount
- Attend annual in-person conferences for less

A national practice network

Practice forums and special interest groups

- Join Practice Forums to share learning and discuss practice challenges.
- Network in expert-led special interest groups and tackle emerging sector priorities together.
- Receive the CoramBAAF Digest with policy, research and practice updates to stay connected to changes affecting practice.

Trusted tools for your practice

Free Practice Notes, books, resources and journals

- Access three leading journals, including Adoption & Fostering, to connect the latest research to practice
- Free Practice Notes and resources to support consistent decision making.
- Read popular CoramBAAF books free through our member eBookstore.

Make the most of your membership

1. Your access starts with your work email

If your organisation is a CoramBAAF member, you can create your personal website account using your work email address.

2. Unlock the full range of member benefits

Once registered, you have full access to resources designed to support your day to day practice and professional development

3. Support you can come back to whenever you need it

Whether you need help with a practice question, want to build your knowledge and skills, or need trusted guidance, your membership is there all year round.

Receive a £50.00 digital giftcard for your agency to spend on an extensive range of quality books, guides and resources

Apply today

