
Recommended reading on direct work with children

'Adoption & Fostering' journal articles

'Adoption & Fostering' is the only quarterly peer-reviewed journal dedicated to adoption, fostering and kinship issues. Dr Dennis Golm, our Editor-in-Chief, has selected some articles that sit within today's topic:

- Looked after and adopted children: applying the latest science to complex biopsychosocial formulations
- Interventions to support reproductive and mental health among care leavers: A systematic review
- The Narrative Model for communicating with looked after children about challenging issues
- One piece of the puzzle: Treatment of fostered and adopted children with RAD and DSED
- A review of interventions to support the educational attainments of children and adolescents in foster care
- An innovative approach to working with children who have experienced developmental trauma: An introduction to the Building Underdeveloped Sensorimotor Systems \(BUSS®\) model
- Podcast interview with Dr Sarah Lloyd about the BUSS Model

In our bookshop

Jo Francis (Publishing Manager) has chosen key titles from our bookshop to give you an opportunity to delve deeper into today's themes and topics:

- Life story work
- Life story work: what it is and what it means
- Adopting a brother or sister
- Digital life story work
- My life and me
- Me and my family
- Picnic in the park
- Where did my dinosaur go?
- Morris and the bundle of worries
- Elfa and the box of memories
- A safe place for rufus