
Recommended reading on staying in touch

'Adoption & Fostering' journal articles

'Adoption & Fostering' is the only quarterly peer-reviewed journal dedicated to adoption, fostering and kinship issues. Dr Dennis Golm, our Editor-in-Chief, has selected some articles that sit within today's topic:

- Keeping in touch: Looked after children and young people's views on their contact arrangements
- 'We all belonged in there somewhere': young people's and carers' experiences of a residential sibling contact event
- The Emotional Nature of Birth Family Relationships for Care-experienced and Adopted Young People: A Longitudinal Perspective

In our bookshop

Jo Francis (Publishing Manager) has chosen key titles from our bookshop to give you an opportunity to delve deeper into today's themes and topics:

- Contact after Adoption
- Contact after Adoption summary
- Planning for contact in permanent placements
- Nutmeg gets a letter
- Where are my brothers and sisters?
- Assessing children and families for adoption support in England
