
Recommended reading on working with schools

'Adoption & Fostering' journal articles

'Adoption & Fostering' is the only quarterly peer-reviewed journal dedicated to adoption, fostering and kinship issues. Dr Dennis Golm, our Editor-in-Chief, has selected some articles that sit within today's topic:

- Are you listening? Echoing the voices of looked after children about their transition to secondary school
- Exploring the educational experiences of children and young people adopted from care: Using the voices of children and parents to inform practice
- Exploring the educational experiences of children and young people adopted from care: Using the voices of children and parents to inform practice

In our bookshop

Jo Francis (Publishing Manager) has chosen key titles from our bookshop to give you an opportunity to delve deeper into today's themes and topics:

- The adopter's handbook on education
- The adopter's handbook on education \(Scotland\)
- The foster carer's handbook on education
- Parenting Matters: Parenting a child with difficulties in learning caused by trauma
- Picnic in the park
- Where did my dinosaur go?
- Morris and the bundle of worries
- Elfa and the box of memories
- A safe place for rufus
- Working with school children - book bundle
- Book bundle for school children