

Contents

	Introduction	1
1	Adoption: your questions answered	5
	The children	6
	Is adoption right for you?	9
	How does the adoption process work?	11
	Who can adopt?	16
	What is concurrent planning?	20
	What is Fostering for Adoption (FfA)?	20
	A detailed look at the process for adopters	21
	Intercountry adoptions	52
2	Legal and financial matters	57
	Introduction	58
	Summary of the legal entitlements and legal requirements of people involved in the adoption process	64
	The role of the courts in the adoption process	69
	Money matters	75
3	Schooling and education	83
	Introduction	84
	What are we entitled to know about our child's educational history?	84
	How do I choose a good school for my child?	89
	What are "special educational needs and disabilities"?	89
	Education, Health and Care Plans	90
	Understanding your child's entitlements to special education provision	91
4	Your child: physical and emotional needs	97
	Introduction	98
	Possible effects of neglect and/or abuse on children	98
	Obtaining health services for your child	105
5	For adoptive parents	117
	Introduction	118
	Adoptive parents' needs are important too	118
	Feelings adoptive parents commonly encounter throughout the adoption experience	119
	Attending to the importance of your couple relationship	127
	Adoption support	128
	Helping yourself and helping your child	131
	Appendices	133
	Appendix 1: Books, journals and magazines	134
	Appendix 2: Organisations, government agencies, websites	141
	Appendix 3: National Minimum Standards	150
	Appendix 4: The Adoption Passport	153
	Index	155